DIRECTOR’S REPORT: THE YEAR IN REVIEW

Dear Members, Donors, Friends, and Our Community ...

In my second year with the privilege to serve as your director, I am once again pleased to report a successful, rewarding, and community-centered season at your Canton Museum of Art. New and expanded programming initiatives and community connections produced an increase in Museum participation and solid operating results for the year ended June 30, 2016. In fact, our 2016 season brought nearly 32,000 people in connection with the Museum and the visual arts . . . nearly 3,000 more participants than the prior year . . . where we enhanced their quality of life through the discovery and exploration of art, and its inspiration. From dynamic exhibits and stimulating artist in conversation programs, to free family fun days, special events, exciting art classes, and more, CMA was the place to be.

Most certainly, all of us at the Museum take pride in the strength of our season. And, as I noted here last year, there’s more to come. We are dedicated to being a community destination for people of all ages—from all over our city, county, and region—to be excited, educated, and entertained by the power of art. The Museum is a gathering place Where Art Meets Life, connecting with individuals and families. For us, that means connecting people through American art and shared experiences that reflect innovation, social themes, history, diversity, cultural heritage, and excellence in collaborative programs that bring the visual and performing arts to the widest possible audience. It means making the Canton Museum of Art a vibrant local and regional resource that:

- Inspires Creativity—creating bold new exhibits and programs from around the country and from our own collection, designed to reach diverse audiences, encourage curiosity about art, and help participants explore how art works in their lives every day.
- Creates Connections—making art available through artistic, family, and social programs that bring people together. From art experiences in the galleries, in the classrooms, or at community events, our exhibits and programs inspire all ages to learn and to share an emotional connection long after they’ve left the Museum.
- Builds Community—fostering both educational and self-discovery through art that brings together our community to explore, to dream, and to learn. In a city reinventing itself and celebrating excellence everywhere, programs at CMA are inspiring and building connections that are touching nearly every aspect of Canton and Stark County, and they are delivering cultural tourism.

 Operating results exclude in-kind income and expenses and depreciation, and include one-time organization development expenses in both years.
Creativity, connections, and community are pillars of our mission, as well as accessibility to all. This is our commitment for all to discover, experience, and enjoy the beauty of art at CMA!

2015-16 FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Operating income for the year, excluding in-kind contributions and net realized and unrealized investment gains (and losses), was $1.02 million, which includes the following (note: rounding applied):

- Grants and contributions were $575.0 thousand ($612.8 thousand including $37.8 thousand in event sponsorships). This represents operating grants from ArtsInStark and the Ohio Arts Council; strong foundation and business support for programs; a new Annual Fund campaign with broad mission appeal; and from our Volunteer Angels and Canton Fine Arts groups.

- Investment income from interest and dividends from CMA’s endowment was $160.5 thousand, up modestly over last year.

- Special events and benefits income was $85.0 thousand, which is comprised of several events including the Museum’s inaugural gARTen event from August 2015. The beautiful gARTen of Good and Evil was the first fundraising gala from the Museum in more than five years. Conceived by our Canton HeART Guild, it debuted to tremendous success. Our second gARTen event just kicked off the 2016-17 season on August 27th. This year’s gARTen of eARThly Delights transformed the rooftop of the Cultural Center for the Arts into an oasis for a sold-out crowd to benefit Museum programming and education outreach.

- Membership income increased approximately 4 percent to $37.7 thousand, while membership units increased from 660 in 2015 to more than 750 at the end this fiscal year. This is primarily due to the Museum’s heightened focus on membership and appealing to new and younger audiences through our programming; as well as membership partnerships with community organizations.

- Admissions income was $24.2 thousand. This reflects greater free admissions from Museum members and from members under the Ohio Museums Reciprocal Membership Program. It also reflects the Museum’s strategic decision in 2014 to remove higher ticket prices for featured exhibits—helping to make all exhibits more accessible for a wider audience. Nationally, admissions income generates between one to four percent of most art museums’ annual revenue.

- Education income was $78.8 thousand in 2016, an increase of 40 percent. This relates to new class offerings and art experience events. More than 850 adults and children attended paid-classes and art events at CMA last year, up from 650 in the prior year.

Operating expenses for 2016 were $1.03 million, including necessary one-time expenses for organization development, but excluding in-kind expenses and depreciation, resulting in a slight operating deficit of $10.0 thousand—our strongest operating performance in several years. This reflects the Museum’s focus on cost controls, primarily rental and shipping expenses, and curating original in-house exhibits, all of which should have greater impact in the 2016-17 season.
Moving Toward the Light

Taking the chill off the winter months, Moving Toward the Light: Watercolors by Joseph Raffael opened in December to rave reviews. Raffael manifests the intensity of nature with his color saturated works, as one of contemporary art’s most highly celebrated painters. His dazzling, large scale paintings have meticulous detail which blooms before your eyes as you experience the pop of his lavish, endless color palette. Since Raffael’s move to France from California, almost 30 years ago, the artist has focused exclusively on watercolor, zeroing in on the essence of a flower, reflections on water, the shimmer of a swimming koi. His commanding works encompass the viewer in a world the eye cannot behold in nature—inviting contemplation and summoning harmony. CMA’s exhibit was the first comprehensive showcase of the artist since the late 70s, and featured many of his newer works, such as the just-completed Moving Toward the Light, and a book by the same name.

“I don’t paint nature. I paint life and light.”
— Joseph Raffael

At the same time, we introduced the ceramics of twin brothers Kyle and Kelly Phelps in Blue Collar, paying tribute to the working class through figurative sculptures. This exhibit also featured photos and other materials loaned by the Massillon Museum, McKinley Presidential Library and Museum, and Hoover Historical Society—a thrilling collaboration of great artistic and historical venues in Stark County! With support in part from an Ohio Humanities grant, we produced a documentary about the Phelps brothers, their unique artistic process, and the story of blue-collar manufacturing in Stark County for airing on Ohio History Connection and other outlets, including PBS. A link to the movie can be found on the Museum website.

Cleveland artist Kristen Cliffel gave a peak inside her life with whimsical figures in Out of the Woods and Into the Ring. Her playful, often humorous, sometimes cynical, themes reveal the joys and hardships of living and parenting in the modern world.

Two exhibits in the spring celebrated our four-legged working heroes: the carved sculptures of Wounded Warrior Dogs by James Mellick gave tribute to our military service dogs across many wars, while the canvases of Loreen Pantaleone’s K-9 Hero Portrait Project memorialized military and law enforcement working dogs—including our own, Canton Police Department K-9 Jethro, who was...
A compelling, moving exhibit, Blue Collar celebrated the working-class with figurative ceramic sculptures made collaboratively by a unique and dynamic duo. Growing up in a small town in Indiana, identical twins Kyle and Kelly Phelps were part of a family and community defined by factory and farm work. Today, as artists and university professors (Kelly, at Xavier University, and Kyle at the University of Dayton), their ceramic works, accented by found objects, pay tribute to the common worker, the everyday people in service and manufacturing industries, and the veteran. With Stark County’s rich manufacturing heritage, this exhibit resonated in the hearts of minds of visitors, and the Phelps brothers were welcomed by students at St. Thomas Aquinas High School to share their inspiration and education through art.

News from The Museum’s Collection

Each season, our curator produces companion exhibits from our extensive Permanent Collection of American art (see page 13), rotating through the nearly 1,200 pieces and educating audiences on the value of the artists and works within the Museum. These exhibits are met with much praise, and they often “surprise” audiences as to the extent of CMA’s Collection, which is valued at nearly $25 million. Works from the Collection also travel to other museums and in national touring shows, increasing awareness of the Museum and the treasures of Stark County.

In 2015-16, we produced three major exhibits from the works of art in our Collection, including Still Lifes, Brushstrokes, and Field & Stream, which delighted audiences with watercolors, oils, prints, drawings, and contemporary ceramics.

Through both gifts and purchases, the Museum acquired seven notable works last year, including ceramics by Viola Fry and Waylande Gregory, as well as watercolor works by Ohio’s Clyde Singer. On a regular basis, Museum leadership and the Collections Management Committee review contents of the Collection to ensure that we acquire and maintain works aligned with our mission and vision, as well as funding sufficient to acquire quality pieces consistent with the focus. In a 2015-16 review process, we deaccessed about 60 objects, primarily from European artists, with several offered for sale through international venues. From sales, the Museum received nearly $500,000—proceeds that, under the Code of Ethics for Museums from our governing body, the American Alliance of Museums, must be used only for the purchase and direct care of Collection art. I know we look forward to adding some amazing works to our Collection in the future.

Education Programs in Action
Dedicated to touching our community and beyond through a wide range of programs, our education department was quite busy in 2015-16, reaching more than 9,000 participants both inside and outside of the Museum through original and collaborative events.

We provided more than 100 tours to nearly 1,500 adults and students this year. As you read previously, our Art Gone Wild Family Day reached nearly 2,000 participants in collaboration with local arts and animal organizations, delivering hands-on art experiences; music, dance, and reading performances; and wildlife/animal conservation and care awareness demonstrations—including painting with the animals from the Akron Zoo. Our long-term partnership with The Artful Living Program from Massillon Museum touched nearly 1,000 students, introducing preschool children to their creative potential. ArtsInStark’s annual family event, SmArtSplash, brought thousands through the Museum for a scavenger hunt in the galleries, as well as hands-on art activities. And CMA’s Art Harvest delighted hundreds with trick-or-treat for art supplies and creative pumpkin painting.

In addition to our paid classes, where registrations increased 13% through our new School of Art offerings in painting, ceramics, and more, CMA embarked on several new ventures last year and starting the 2016-17 season. Our Museum To Go Program, funded by a SmArts grant from ArtsInStark and an Ohio Arts Council ArtsNEXT grant, launched with Canton City Schools and other Stark County schools, for delivery in classrooms starting September 2016. This mobile museum program builds on our popular Visiting Artist Program and features a three-part, 45 minute art lesson: 1) an introduction to a work of art from CMA’s Collection; 2) a Google® virtual tour of the exhibit featuring that piece, and: 3) a curriculum standards-aligned art activity to inspire creative learning in visual arts, math, science, and language arts. The Ohio Arts Council reviewed Museum To Go as “a strong offering,” and the Museum plans to reach more than 50 fourth grade classrooms and more than 1,000 students in this first year.

With a strong focus on education outreach and programs, CMA is helping to fuel creative thinking and innovation in our

Art and The Animal
Art and the Animal is an annual exhibit of the Society of Animal Artists, which has been featured at more than 50 venues including museums, zoos, and science centers throughout North America. Combining natural history and fine art, artists from the Society compete to be included in this prestigious exhibit. This season marked the second time CMA had the honor of showcasing these fantastic paintings and sculptures—more than 60 pieces that left visitors thrilled! Families and children of all ages delighted in learning more about animals in the wild—from lions on the Plains of Africa to backyard birds. As a special treat for the opening night reception, the Akron Zoo introduced some of their residents, and service dogs strolled the galleries engaging visitors.
community’s young minds. And the same goes for adult minds, too! Last year, we delivered on-demand Community Art Talks across Stark and Summit Counties—from our district libraries and community centers to universities, churches, and corporations. We reached more than 1,000 participants with topics ranging from current exhibits and art crimes to art appreciation and using art as a memory care therapy.

Art for Health and Healing Program

As discussed last year, CMA is working with local health and human service agencies to use art and the CMA exhibits as tools for health and healing in those recovering from substance addiction, domestic violence, and other issues. As we started our 2016-17 season, CMA was awarded a grant from Stark County Mental Health & Addiction Recovery for an 18-week program with a certified art therapist, providing art workshops for clients from Domestic Violence Project, Child & Adolescent Behavioral Health, and CommQuest. Also last season, CMA partnered with Hattie Larlham to use the Museum as a source of therapeutic interaction for their clients. We hope both programs will be long-term offerings.

THANK YOU TO OUR DEDICATED MUSEUM GROUPS!

Our 2015-16 season was strong with support from all of the Museum affiliate groups and volunteers. We are so fortunate to call them friends of the Museum, and we truly appreciate the work of each group to make possible our programs and events.

Canton Fine Arts Associates, a membership organization dedicated to promoting the Museum and the visual arts in our city, hosted several luncheon programs last year, including their annual fashion show, to introduce to CMA exhibits, local artists, and trending topics in both visual and performing arts. In November, the Fine Arts group completed their 44th Annual Christkindl Markt—their signature fundraising event to benefit the Museum. Christkindl attracts thousands each year to the Cultural Center for the Arts to experience (and shop) fine arts and fine crafts from 100 artisans from across the country. Learn more about the event on page 18.

Our new Canton HeART Guild volunteer group was created in 2015 and is responsible for the Museum’s annual gARTen event, now in its third year. Comprised of 20+ dynamic young professionals and community arts leaders, the Guild is dedicated to connecting our community to the vibrancy of the Museum. Learn more about the amazing HeART Guild on page 15, and gARTen on pages 16-17.

The Museum’s Volunteer Angels have been generous “angels” to us since 1992. These passionate supporters of art—and the arts in wounded warrior dogs

CMA was honored to host the Wounded Warrior Dogs, a traveling exhibit of wooden dog sculptures created by master Ohio craftsman James Mellick. The dogs are symbolic of sacrifice and exhibit the same wounds as their human companions in battle. The installation in the Museum’s lobby raised awareness of wounded veterans of all kinds. While not for sale, display of the sculptures at any venue helps to raise money for local veterans organizations that serve wounded warriors. Six dogs representing service in various wars comprise this exhibit. The seventh dog, under a flag, made the ultimate sacrifice (shown here at CMA in the shadow of a tribute portrait for Canton Police K-9 Officer Jethro, killed in the line of duty in January 2016). With the Wounded Warrior Dogs, Mellick won the prestigious $200,000 international ArtPrize in October 2016.
general—raise much needed operating funds for the Museum each year. We are honored by their continued gifts and their friendship, and you can learn more about them on page 14.

Our Museum Docents provide tours through our exhibits, engaging both adults and children through stories behind the art and artists. In addition to operating the Museum’s pottery studio and providing amazing class programs, the Canton Ceramic Artists Guild supports the Canton community. This year marked the 18th consecutive year that the Guild has sold “Empty Bowls for Hunger” with proceeds donated to the Stark County Hunger Task Force. And throughout the community, members of our Canton Artists League continued to enhance visual arts education and provide collaborative resources for local artists—including exhibits at the Museum.

FREE THURSDAYS AT CMA!
Thursdays are now free at the Canton Museum of Art for the 2016-17 season! Thanks to a new sponsorship from Gasser Fine Jewelers, admission to the galleries will be free every Thursday. In addition, the Museum’s free First Friday admission and events will be presented by Gasser. CMA will continue to be the “First Stop” to kickoff the First Friday Canton Arts District celebration with creative events such as the Canton Arts District All-Stars, Crafty Mart, and more.

This amazing partnership with our friends at Gasser Jewelers expands opportunities for our community to discover art and the Museum. We are very fortunate to have the Gasser team as friends and leading supporters for arts and culture in Canton.

JOIN US FOR AN EXCITING 2016-17 SEASON!
CMA has an amazing line up of original exhibits this season! As we write this letter, Three Voices opened to a fantastic reception in late August, as the all-Ohio artist representation of Judy Brandon, Leslie Shiels, and Carol Snyder brought followers—and collectors—from around the state. Their emotion-filled art in porcelain, oil, and watercolor captivated viewers, and started discussions about how art has the power to capture feelings and provide healing therapy.

Our feature for the winter 2016-17 months is Dream Worlds: The Art of Imaginative Realism, created with guest curator, and Canton native, Chris Seaman. Audiences will experience new worlds and dazzling stories of past, present, and future from award-winning artists working in fantasy realms of film, television, gaming, theatre, literature, and more. Rooted in imaginative early European art movements through Realism and Surrealism (think Hieronymus Bosch, Jan van Eyck, and Salvador Dalí), Dream Worlds will delight and make art in a Museum setting approachable to many new audiences.

In the spring, we invite audiences to travel through an excavation of mighty entities such as mummies and totems in Avatars: Relics from the Future. Created by CMA with ceramic artist Gary Spinosa, this exhibit combines human, animal, and architectural forms, from grand constructions to hand sized “stones,” that radiate spiritual energy, stillness, and even mystery. Educational and family programming will accompany this bold exhibit—including a free family “Night At The Museum,” allowing all ages to explore the nooks and crannies of the Museum, go on archaeological hunts, and create their own art “relics.”

We are excited about our new season with these featured exhibits, as well as those in our other galleries and from our collection. Each will be accompanied by programs and events that will broaden and enrich the experience of art—while providing something for everyone to be entertained. And this all leads up to a bold 2017-18 season that will feature acclaimed artists in Scrimmage: Football in American Art from the Civil War to the Present, and the African American storyteller woodcarvings of Elijah Pierce: An American Narrative—showcasing one of the most prominent folk artists of the last century.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

It is indeed a privilege to lead CMA and to be embarking on such amazing exhibits and programs that will touch our community, and beyond. The Museum truly has something for everyone!

We are grateful for the support from our members and donors—from individuals to businesses to foundations—with operating support from ArtsInStark and the Ohio Arts Council. Every gift, membership, sponsorship, and grant makes the creative discovery, learning, and inspiration through art accessible to many. Likewise to our visitors, artists, and class participants; all of you make the experience of art possible. You are all part of creating a place Where Art Meets Life.

To an amazing CMA staff—thank you for your commitment to excellence in every visitor’s experience of art, and for your dedication to our community. I have never worked with a more talented and caring group of professionals. To our Board of Trustees—thank you for your confidence in our direction and all of the changes that have made the Museum even more exciting and accessible. I also thank you for your ideas and gifts of talent and time to make our shared vision a reality.

To our City of Canton leaders, our Chamber of Commerce and Visit Canton / Stark County Convention and Visitors’ Bureau, and our state and federal representatives—thank you for making the Canton Museum of Art a focal point of your message about the excellence of our great city and region.

To our fellow arts organizations and partners, in Stark County and beyond—thank you for all that you do to make the arts a vital part of our lives. Every time we collaborate, we become stronger in reaching our community and inspiring creativity for all ages.

To all—please join us this season and be inspired . . . to learn, to celebrate, to be entertained, to share an emotional experience . . . to discover more about how art inspires and changes lives.

Sincerely,

Max R. Barton II

(Above, from Left) School tours bring thousands of children, and their families, through the Museum each year. | Art experience programs foster creativity for young people—and people of all ages—to learn and explore through the inspiration of art.
On May 14, 2016, the free Art Gone Wild Family Day transformed the Museum and the Cultural Center for the Arts into a creative jungle, with over 15 unique art and animal activities for all ages. Nearly 2,000 people turned out for the Art and the Animal exhibit, plus live animal demos by the Akron Zoo—including animals creating their own works of art—and activities from multiple community partners.

CMA conceived this special event to open the Museum to audiences throughout our community—making art an approachable, fun experience. The event provided many with their very first encounter with the Museum, with many “thank you” comments from attendees for giving them a chance to experience the arts activities and the Zoo animals!

This special event was sponsored by Western Reserve Public Media, Williams Family Dental Group, Winick Endodontics, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Northeastern Ohio, and For Paws Animal Hospital.

Formed in 1992 by Tanya Harroff and Rachel Schneider, the Volunteer Angels is an organization of women who are passionate supporters of art and the Canton Museum of Art. They are inspired by the Museum’s dedication to make art accessible to all through exhibits and programs that foster creative discovery and learning, and connect art to life throughout our community.

The Volunteer Angels honor the numerous Museum volunteers, who each year invest thousands of hours staffing events and programs. The Angels support them through their organization’s membership contributions that recognize the labors of love from each volunteer—from docents to event staffers.

In the last 24 years, the Angels have contributed more than $750,000 to the Museum. Their generous donations provide unrestricted operating funds for a variety of programs, from exhibits to education. The dedication of our Volunteer Angels enables so much each year. The Canton HeART Guild is a modern and dynamic volunteer group founded by CMA Vice President, Lindsay Zimmerman. These energetic volunteers are dedicated to promoting events and exhibits at the Museum. Every year, the HeART Guild plans and organizes their gARTen fundraiser with amazing cuisine and entertainment. In August 2015, they premiered the gARTen of Good and Evil to tremendous acclaim and success.

On August 27, 2016 (as of this writing, and part of the 2016-17 fiscal year), another sold-out crowd celebrated with mesmerizing entertainment, decor, and food at the gARTen of eARTHly Delights, inspired by the famous Hieronymus Bosch painting (c. 1490 - 1510), The Garden of Earthly Delights. See event highlights on pages 16 - 17.

In addition to being one of the most talked about new events, the annual gARTen fundraiser has contributed thousands of dollars for CMA programming. As planning for the 2017 event begins, the HeART Guild is bringing innovative ideas and fresh perspective to connect with CMAs mission and enable programs that will energize diverse audiences throughout Northeast Ohio.

Exotic, entertaining, and engaging—the 2016 gARTen of eARThly Delights, CMA’s premier fundraiser presented by the Canton HeART Guild, exceeded all expectations! Inspired by the early renaissance Hieronymus Bosch painting, The Garden of Earthly Delights, this event for the 2016-17 season was attended by nearly 400 people supporting the Museum’s exhibits and education programming.

Mermaids, a Snake Charmer, and Stilt Walkers were just some of the surprises that awaited guests on Saturday, August 27, as the rooftop of the Cultural Center for the Arts was once again transformed into an dreamy oasis. This amazing event would not have been possible without the many individual and business sponsors from throughout Canton and Stark County, and the generous support of ArtsInStark and the Cultural Center staff. Our community truly turned out to show how much we support and recognize that the visual and performing arts infuse life with creativity, inspiration, and education, while making our community stronger.

Guests to the gARTen were treated to culinary delights generously provided by acclaimed local restaurants:

91 Wood Fired Oven | Basil Asian Bistro | Bender’s Tavern
Canton Brewing Company | Desert Inn | Gallery 121
Gervasi Vineyard | Hazel & Rye Artisan Bakery | Lucca
Milk and Honey | Nuevo Modern Mexican | Prime 93 | Savor

Over $30,000 worth of prizes were donated for raffles, and 20 regional artists donated artwork for the silent auction. A special thank you to Barthel’s Garden Center for the custom-built lagoon that the Mermaids splashed upon throughout the evening.

Congratulations to gARTen co-chairs Lindsay Zimmerman and Jodi Luntz, the Canton HeART Guild, and all of the volunteers who made this special evening for CMA possible. We can’t wait to plan the fun for next year to support and expand all of the amazing programs at the Museum!

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT
Board of Trustees and Members • Canton Museum of Art
Canton, Ohio

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Canton Museum of Art (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements
Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility
Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion
In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Canton Museum of Art as of June 30, 2016 and 2015, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Museum Docents

Docents at the Canton Museum of Art provide a vital service to our patrons, taking children and adults on tours of CMA exhibits and other programs. Our Docents are an all-volunteer group, dedicating their time at monthly meetings to learn about each new exhibit and the artwork, providing tours, leading studio art projects, and answering questions at exhibit openings, Family Days, and other special events. In addition to training time, our Docents take field trips to other museums to attend major exhibits and to “shadow” their counterparts and learn more about best practices for audience engagement and storytelling during tours. This year’s trip was to the Cleveland Museum of Art (see below).

In 2015-16, our Docents provided over 100 scheduled group tours, benefiting more than 1,500 people, including our youngest Museum patrons. Hundreds of students came from the Canton City Elementary Schools and throughout Stark County.

CMA Docents consistently receive praise for their tours and are valued for their knowledge and insight of the featured exhibits and the CMA Collection. We are grateful that they are dedicated to providing this service to the Museum and make a positive impression with our audiences—helping to enrich the arts and humanities experience that we deliver. Call 330.453.7666 for more information on joining our Docent team!

Canton Artists League

Founded in 1996, the mission of the Canton Artists League is to “provide enriched opportunities and encouragement for professional, semi-professional, and amateur visual artists and individuals with a sincere interest in supporting art.” This is accomplished through a combination of group exhibits, educational workshops, field trips, and artistic support programs throughout the community.

The Canton Artists League is a welcome forum for all artists, photographers, and craftsman to meet and help further their creativity and a shared bond of talent and imagination. The League presents a biennial exhibit in the galleries of the Museum, and artwork from League members is featured monthly in the Museum lobby. All Canton Artists League members are also valued members of the Canton Museum of Art, thereby helping to support our mission in advancing the discovery and exploration of art. To learn more about the League, visit www.cantonartistsleague.org for membership information.

NOTE A - ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization
Canton Museum of Art (Museum) is a non-profit entity organized under the laws of the State of Ohio and fully accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. The community-oriented Museum provides art services which include maintenance and exhibit of a permanent collection of fine art, presentation of a diversified schedule of both original and rental exhibitions, a wide variety of educational opportunities, and collaborations with many other community agencies.

Basis of Presentation
The Museum applies FASB ASC 958-205. Under FASB ASC 958-205, the Museum is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets described as follows:

- Unrestricted net assets – Net assets which are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions.
- Temporarily restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed restrictions that may or will be met either by actions of the Museum and/or the passage of time.

Use of Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses including functional allocations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentration of Credit Risk
Financial instruments which potentially subject the Museum to concentrations of credit risk consist of cash, temporary investments, investment securities, and contributions receivable. The Museum places its cash and temporary investments with creditworthy, high quality financial institutions.

The Museum has significant investments in equity securities and other types of investments and is therefore subject to concentrations of credit risk. Investments are managed by investment advisors who are supervised by the Trustees. Though the market value of investments is subject to fluctuations on a year-to-year basis, the Trustees believe that the investment policy is prudent for the long-term welfare of the Museum.

Cash and Cash Equivalents
For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Museum considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Museum's cash accounts are maintained at high quality financial institutions and may at times exceed Federally insured amounts.

Grants and Contributions
Grants and contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Museum that is, in substance, unconditional. Grants and contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets, if the restrictions expire in the fiscal year in which the grants and contributions are recognized. All other donor-restricted contributions are reported as increases in temporarily or permanently restricted net assets depending on the nature of the restrictions. When a restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Contributions of property and equipment are recorded as support at their estimated fair value. Such contributions are reported as unrestricted support unless the donor has restricted the contributed asset to a specific purpose. Assets contributed with explicit restrictions regarding their use and contributions of cash that must be used to acquire property and equipment are reported as restricted support.

Absent donor stipulations regarding how long those contributed assets must be maintained, the Museum reports expirations of donor restrictions when the donated or acquired assets are placed in service as instructed by the donor. The Museum reclassifies temporarily restricted net assets to unrestricted net assets at that time.

Inventory
Inventories of merchandise purchased for resale or used for classes are stated at lower of cost or market determined by the first-in, first-out (FIFO) method.

Investments
Investments in equity securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities are reported at fair value, based on quoted prices in active markets (all Level 1 measurements), with gains or losses included in the statement of activities. Interest and dividend income, net of applicable management fees, and net realized and unrealized gains or losses on fair value of investments are each reported in the period earned as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets.

FASB ASC 820, established a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels. The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement in its entirety falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the measurement in its entirety.

Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the reporting entity has the ability to access at the measurement date. A quoted price in an active market provides the most reliable evidence of fair value.

Level 2 inputs are inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, and include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability, and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, that is, inputs that reflect the reporting entity’s own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability (including assumptions about risk) developed based on the best information available in the circumstances.

For the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015 the Museum engaged solely in Level 1 inputs.

Improvements and Equipment
Improvements and equipment are recorded at cost or fair value in the case of donated property at the date of acquisition. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred, while expenditures for additions and improvements are generally capitalized. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Depreciation expense amounted to $24,996 and $24,892 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Donated Facilities and Services
The Museum entered into an agreement with Arts in Stark (formerly the Cultural Center for the Arts) (AIS) of Canton, Ohio for the use of facilities at 1001 Market Avenue North. The agreement is automatically renewed from year to year, unless notification to the contrary is made by either party 120 days prior to the end of the calendar year. Under the agreement, no rental payments are made to AIS. However, the Museum is responsible for maintenance and repair of the facilities, as well as its pro rata share of certain utility costs.

See Independent Auditor’s Report
Contributed facility income and expense for the special purpose facilities has been reflected in the financial statements under the heading “In-kind contribution – use of facilities” and within various expenses, respectively, in the amount of $420,180 and $406,300 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015.

The value of contributed services is not included in the financial statements since no objective method of measuring their value is available. However, there are a number of volunteers who have donated a considerable amount of time to the Museum’s programs and activities.

Art Collections
The Museum’s art collections, which were purchased or donated, are not included as assets in the statement of financial position. Each of the items is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed continuously. The collections are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from their sales to be used to acquire other items for collections. Purchases of collection items are recorded as decreases in net assets in the year in which the items are acquired. Contributed collection items are not reflected on the financial statements. Proceeds from deaccessions are reflected as increases in net assets.

Functional Allocation of Costs
Costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on the statement of activities on a functional basis as determined by management.

Advertising Costs
Advertising costs, which are expensed as incurred, totaled $88,281 and $61,570 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Income Taxes
The Museum is a non-profit entity and has been granted an exemption from income taxes under the provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Uncertain Tax Positions. The Museum complies with the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. The provisions prescribe a two-step process for recognizing and measuring income tax uncertainties. First, a threshold condition of “more likely than not” should be met to determine whether any of the benefit from an uncertain tax position should be recognized in the financial statements. If the recognition threshold is met, FASB ASC 740-10 provides additional guidance on measuring the amount of the uncertain tax position. The Museum may recognize a tax benefit from an uncertain tax position under FASB ASC 740-10 only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefit recognized in the financial statements from an uncertain position should be measured under FASB ASC 740-10 based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. FASB ASC 740-10 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, transition and increased disclosure of uncertain tax positions. The Museum recognized no liability for unrecognized tax benefits resulting from FASB ASC 740-10 as of June 30, 2016 and 2015.

Reclassifications
Certain 2015 amounts have been reclassified to conform with the 2016 financial statement presentation.

Subsequent Events
The Museum has evaluated subsequent events through September 22, 2016, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE B - INVESTMENTS

Purchased accessions amounted to $38,570 and $5,175 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Sold deaccessions were $537,785 and $0 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015.

The estimated fair value of the collection for insurance purposes was approximately $21,240,095 and $20,519,233 at June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The Permanent Collection is broken down into six (6) categories: 3D, Ceramics, Drawings, Oils, Prints & Watercolors. Under the plan, contributions made by the employees through salary reduction agreements are matched by the Museum. Since the annuities are owned individually, each participant is fully vested.

The expense to the Museum was $9,126 and $7,522 for the years ended June 30, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

Canton Ceramic Artists Guild (CCAG)

Artists of the Canton Ceramic Artists Guild, a professional group founded in 1974, are dedicated to supporting ceramic education at CMA. The 12+ active members and 2 apprentices promote pottery education by volunteering their time and talent to fire students’ artwork, maintain the pottery studio, and demonstrate techniques to children and adults. They also support the CMA’s pottery program financially: through sales of their artwork at the annual Christkindl Markt and at the Guild’s annual May Sale, 30 percent of their proceeds are donated to the Museum for pottery studio maintenance and upgrades, special community workshops, and more.

Not only does this group provide the skills, knowledge, and time critical to making CMA pottery classes successful, but the CCAG also supports the community by participating annually in the “Empty Bowls for Hunger” program. This year marked the 19th consecutive year that the CCAG has sold “Empty Bowls,” with proceeds from sales donated to the Stark County Hunger Task Force. We thank our CCAG members for all they do for the Museum and our community.

Canton Museum of Art is one of Stark County’s seven largest arts organizations who receive operating grants from ArtsInStark, thanks to the generosity of our community during the Annual Arts Campaign. ArtsInStark, the County Arts Council, is a 46-year old non-profit organization that provides arts grants, manages the Cultural Center for the Arts—and much more, including the Canton Arts District, First Friday, SmArts Program for schools, and The ELEVEN sculpture project. ArtsInStark’s annual budget of $3 million comes entirely from the private sector, and they receive no government support. Each spring during the Annual Arts Campaign, ArtsInStark raises money from individuals, companies, and foundations to support the inspiration of the arts across Stark County. In May 2016, the Campaign raised $1.7 million—to become the only united arts fund drive in America to ever make goal for 11 years in a row. Visit www.artsinstark.com to learn more!
